- 4.) Summary Statement of Intent: The intent of this resolution is to place the 2010 Annual Meeting of the Minnesota Conference UCC on record as supportive of marriage equality for couples regardless of gender. Its focus is on the UCC Minnesota Conference's prophetic voice to its member churches and to the general public, particularly in the State of Minnesota.
- 5.) Background and Supporting Statement: The United Church of Christ (UCC) declares that it is called in ministry and prophetic witness to be a church of "firsts." The Fifteenth General Synod's (1985) resolution, "Calling on United Church of Christ Congregations to Declare Themselves Open and Affirming" is one example. The UCC was the first Christian denomination to affirm marriage equality for couples regardless of gender in a resolution passed at the Twenty-fifth General Synod (2005). The Minnesota Conference, UCC, declared itself to be "Open and Affirming" by a 2008 Annual Meeting resolution.

New Testament scriptures contain no words of Jesus condemning homosexuality. Rather, Jesus' words, life and ministry provide a model of radically inclusive love and abundant welcome for all. No cultural perspective during Biblical times directly applies to today's context related to (LGBT) persons living in committed relationships. At the 2009 ONA Gathering of the Minnesota Conference UCC, Rev. Dr. Carolyn Pressler and Rev. Sue Ebbers, Professors at United Theological Seminary of the Twin Cities, provided examples of loving alternative families from Scripture and lifted up unique contributions same-gender couples can make to the church. In modern context, the most vocal voice in opposition to same-gender loving couples has been identified with one element within the Christian church. It was most prominently visible in the passage of Proposition 8 in the State of California, an initiative banning recognition of same-gender marriages. This initiative has contributed to misunderstanding, polarization, and increasing hostility toward LGBT people. The resolution we propose calls upon the Minnesota Conference UCC to be a prophetic voice of inclusivity, radical hospitality, and advocacy for same-gender loving couples by supporting marriage equality.

- 1 WHEREAS the life and example of Jesus of Nazareth provides a model of radically inclusive love and
- 2 abundant welcome for all: and
- 3 WHEREAS recognition of marriage carries with it significant access to institutional support, rights and
- 4 benefits; and
